

Workshop

Re-imagining the Past (Die neue Rückbesinnung), October 12th, 2022

- |               |   |
|---------------|---|
| 10.00 – 10.15 | Welcome and Introduction  |
| 10.15 – 11.30 | Panel 1Anna Schober: A People of Victims – The Presence of Iconic Images of Slavery at Covid Action and Climate Demonstrations in Contemporary GermanyBernhard Forchtner: Nature's Past in the New Right Imaginary: The Case of Die Kehre in GermanyFriederike Kuntz: Untimely Utopia of Eternal Return – On the Chronopolitics of the European New Right |
| 11.30 – 12.00 | Coffee Break   |
| 12.00 – 13.15 | Panel 2Sarah-Lea Effert: Transformative or Futures Literacy: A Counter-Strategy to Re-Imagined Pasts?Katja Freistein, Frank Gadinger and Christine Unrau: Reclaiming the Past: New Progressive Positions in a Culture WarSiddharth Tripathi: Nostalgia and the 'New India': Envisioning a Future through the Golden Past   |
| 13.15 – 14.15 | Lunch  |
| 14.15 – 15.30 | Panel 3Emilia Palonen: Shared Sacred Spaces as a Source for NationalismKarolina Kluczevska: Re-imagining the Past, Building the Future: Visual State and Nation-Building in TajikistanBirgit Mersmann: Image Disputes over the Past: Posticonoclast Heritage Reconstruction  |
| 15.30 – 16.00 | Coffee Break   |
| 16.00 – 17.15 | Panel 4Stefan Groth: Authentic Texts and 'Original Ideas' : On the Interpretation of Foundational EU FrameworksBidisha Biswas: Constructed Pasts and Imagined Homelands : (Mis)Understandings of History among the Indian DiasporaJohannes Voelz: The Politics of Memory in US Talk Radio  |
| 17.15 – 17.45 | Wrap-up  |
| 19.00         | Dinner   |