

Centre for

Global Cooperation Research

Institutional Ethnography: An Interdisciplinary Feminist Approach to Social Research

Training Course

8-9 September 2022

ONLINE (Zoom)

Organised by the Käte Hamburger Kolleg/Centre for Global Cooperation Research, University of Duisburg-Essen

Programme

Thursday, 8 September 2022

09:30-09:45 WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

09:45-11:30 INTRODUCTION TO INSTITUTIONAL ETHNOGRAPHY

Video lectures and case study

11:30-11:45 Coffee Break

11:45-12:45 PLENARY Q & A

Q & A on the video lectures and case study

12:45-13:00 PREPARATION DAY 2

Explanation of tasks for day 2
and division into small groups based on research interests

Friday, 9 September 2022

09:30-10:00 WELCOME DAY 2

10:00-11:30 TEXT ANALYSIS

Video lecture
Case Study
Q & A

11:30-11:45 Lunch Break

11:45-12:45 SMALL GROUP DISCUSSIONS

How can participants' research projects translate into Institutional
Ethnographies?

12:45-13:00 Concluding Discussion and Q & A

Speakers:

Dr. Órla Meadhbh Murray, Postdoctoral Research Associate, Centre for Higher Education Research and Scholarship, Imperial College London. Co-convenor of the UK & Ireland Institutional Ethnography network and the European Institutional Ethnography network. Together with the course organiser, Dr Murray runs regular Institutional Ethnography courses for the UK National Centre for Research Methods. She has also delivered Institutional Ethnography training and talks at the University of Edinburgh, University of Bristol, University of Melbourne, University of Leicester and University of Antwerp.

Dr Murray set up the UK Institutional Ethnography Network in 2014 at the University of Edinburgh where she did her PhD in Sociology, a feminist Institutional Ethnography of how academics negotiate UK university audit processes. She is currently writing a monograph based on the PhD alongside other articles focused on abolitionist approaches to the university and imposter syndrome amongst marginalised STEM students.

Dr. Adriana Suárez Delucchi, KHK Postdoctoral Fellow, geographer with expertise on Institutional Ethnography. Together with Dr Murray, Adriana has run five different training courses for the UK NCRM and the South West Doctoral Training Partnership. She co-founded and convenes the monthly ‘Institutional Ethnography Mentorship Seminars’ where advice is provided and discussions fostered to advance knowledge for PhD Students on how to utilize the approach. Adriana is co-organising the working group’s sessions for the ISA Conference in Melbourne 2023.

She was recently invited to participate in the ‘Simply Institutional Ethnography’ book launch, Dorothy Smith’s latest publication.